

WBCA Men's Coach and Player Award Winners

College Players of the Year

- Division 1
 - Markus Howard
- Division 2
 - Kyle Monroe (Ashwaubenon HS), Michigan Tech; GLIAC Player of the Year; NABC D2 All-American; Second Team All-American by D2CCA; 23 points per game; broke Michigan Tech & GLIAC career scoring records with 1,875 career points
- Division 3 Private
 - Andrew Bruggink (Brookfield Central HS), Wisconsin Lutheran College; NACC Player of the Year; All-Region; 24.2 points, 6.7 rebounds, 3.1 assists per game
- Division 3 Public
 - Adam Fravert (Marshfield HS), UW-Oshkosh; WIAC Co-Player of the Year; NABC First Team All-American; D3hoops.com Second Team All-American; 18.4 points, 9 rebounds, 3.4 assists per game
- Junior College
 - David Britton (Mountaintop Christian HS), UW-Washington; Wisconsin Collegiate Conference East Division Player of the Year; led WCC with 34.9 points per game; added 11.5 rebounds per game

Coaches of the Year

- High School
 - Jerry Petitgoue, Cuba City: won SWAL title; went perfect 25-0 on season; team advanced to D4 sectional final
- Division 1
 - Greg Gard, UW – Big Ten Coach of the Year
- Division 2/3
 - Jeff Gard, UW-Platteville: WIAC Coach of the Year; led Platteville to conference regular season title and third straight NCAA D3 tournament; Jack Bennett Award winner; NABC District Coach of the Year
- Junior College
 - Randy Casey, Milwaukee Area Technical College; named Conference Coach of the Year, NJCAA Region Coach of the Year, HoopDirt.com Coach of the Year; team was top seed in NJCAA D1 tournament
- Staff of the Year
 - Wisconsin: Greg Gard, Alando Tucker, Dean Oliver, Joe Krabbenhoft; led team through challenge of Howard Moore's accident in off-season; challenges of Micah Potter's transfer delay and Kobe King's mid-season transfer; won final eight games of season to claim share of Big Ten title; Alando Tucker stepped into assistant role to fill in for Moore